vacation at home from Philadelphia, where he is taking a course in medicine.

Attorney W. H. Button left Sunday for Washington on business. Mrs. Button is spending a few days visiting in Burlington.

W. S. Alden, formerly a resident of Middlebury, has been drawn as juror in the superior court in Boston, which meets on Jan. 2.

On Monday, New Year's, the post office will be closed from 10:30 a. m. till 4 p. m. The night mail will close at 6:30 p. m.

Misses Jessie Brainerd and Maude Mellen, who are students in Smith college, are at home for the holiday vacation.

The next meeting of the Fortnightly club will be held with Miss Pliny Saturday, Jan. 13, at 4 o'clock, instead of Monday, Jan. 8.

Mrs. G. S. Walnwright, who for several weeks past has been the guest of her daughters at Albany and York, Penn., is once more at home.

Last week, Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs.
Robert Leggett sustained the loss of their two-year-old son. The little boy was carried away by whooping cough.

Leslie R. Adams died at his home in Bethel, Vt., Wednesday night. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Clara Latimer Adams, of this town. He was 42 years old.

H. G. Lawrence of Richville recently killed a 14 months hog which dressed 613 pounds, and he wants to see anything better in Middlebury. Can he be accommodated?

The annual meeting of the Century club will be held with Mrs. M. H. Eddy on Wednesday evening, Jan. 3, at 7:15.
Members are reminded that the annual fee is due at this time.

The marriage is announced of George T. Champagne and Miss Frances H.
O'Connor of New Haven, Conn., on Wednesday, Aug. 2, 1899, at St. Mary's cathedral, Burlington, Vt., by Rev. J.
P. Gillis.

A. J. Blackmer, the furniture dealer, employed Santa Claus himself as a delivery clerk last Saturday and Monday. As the roads were without snow, the old gentleman made his rounds with a hay-wagon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Varney, their son and daughter, H. S. Varney, and Gertrude Varney of Lincoln, C. G. Hatch of Middlebury, and Mary Hatch of Rutland spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs.
I. W. Hatch of Lincoln.

Theodore Monroe came up from Boston Sunday morning and remained over Christmas with his parents on Seminary street. He is now the Boston manager of the Lock-Stub Check company, a New York concern with branch offices in Chicago and Boston.

Charles J. Lincoln's big "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" company will make a parade Thursday noon on the principal streets of Middlebury, which will be worth coming miles to witness. See the pageant and hear the superb brass band, even if you do not attend the performance.

Mrs. Beadell went to Burlington on Wednesday, called there by the death of her uncle, Prof. J. K. Chickering, for a number of years professor of rhetoric and English in the University of Vermont. He was a son of Dr. J. W. Chickering, class of 1826 of Middlebury college.

Miss Harriet W. Mead, who for many years has been the preceptress of Washington academy at Salem, N. Y., has resigned on account of ill-health. At a recent meeting of the trustees of the academy, a series of resolutions were passed expressing regret at her ill health and commending in high terms her work as preceptress.

Lake Dunmore Lodge, I. O. O. F., is arranging to give a dance at the town hall on Monday evening next. Fine music will be provided and a pleasant time is assured all who attend. This dance is an annual institution of the lodge, and this year will include an instrumental concert. George H. Wilder of Montpelier, flute soloist, will assist in the latter. A fine supper will be served in the lower hall. All are cordially invited to attend.

At the regular meeting of Arrowana Lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, Tuesday evening, they nominated and elected officers on the same night by permission from headquarters. The new officers are:
N. G. Mrs. A. H. Langworthy; V. G.
Mrs. Cora Ferris; secretary, Mrs.
J. M. Stringham; treasurer, Mrs. Jennie E. Calhoun. The above mentioned officers will be installed the second meeting in January on account of the district deputy being out of town.

Addison County Court.

Our report of the divorce case, Marie A. Leland vs. Solon P. Leland of Salisbury, was not complete. The bill was granted to Mrs. Leland for intolerable cruelty. The custody of the two minor children was decreed to Mrs. Leland with $1200 alimony, which was paid.

This ends a long controversy. At the last term the question was heard by the court on the husband's petition against the wife, and the bill was denied him.
Mrs. Leland and her children will continue to live with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Johnson of West Salisbury. W. H. Bliss appeared for petitioner, J. B. Donoway for respondent. Before final adjournment several matters were disposed of. The divorce case of Orson E. Abels vs. Marion L.
Abels, ground desertion, did not satisfy the court that the separation was wilful.

The case was continued for the purpose of ascertaining the fact. Whether vs.
Wetherbee came here from Forestdale, in Rutland county, through Bristol, where the lady was recently employed. The court could not see that the case was properly in its jurisdiction and dismissed it on the merits of the case besides. The week before there was heard the case of Charles Vancor vs. Harriet Vancor. The court granted the bill for adultery by the wife and awarded the custody of the minor children, Mabel E. and Frank H., to the father. The cross bill of the wife was summarily dismissed. Lucy Fortune was not satisfied with her husband, named Arthur E., and made the court think as she did. Jones vs. Jones, Swan vs. Swan and Meader vs. Meader, all di-

WEYBRIDGE.

Miss Inez Fisk Gage is home for the holidays.

Mrs. Wilfred Danyew is quite sick with grip.

Mrs. L. C. Sturtevant has slightly improved of late.

John and Bert Dodge spent Christmas at their parents'.

Nelson Merrills is in town canvassing for his patent wood-saw.

Mrs. Hattie Sturtevant Palmer of Kemper, Ill., writes of wintry weather with some snow at her home.

Dexter Mitchell, accompanied by Raymond Sturtevant, returned to his home at St. Albans on Tuesday.

Geo. S. Wright is at his old home from his field of labors as principal of the graded school at Bethel.

School at the village is closed until Tuesday next. Mrs. O'Rourke going to her home at West Rutland on Friday.

J. P. Brittle started on Tuesday on his route with his stock of samples of spring goods. L. Golette goes as assistant.

Clyde Fiske is home for the holidays and will be obliged to stay during the winter on account of a sprained knee, acquired while engaged in a game of football.

The Christmas trees and the accompanying entertainments were well attended. The little ones bore well their parts. The trees were heavily laden with good gifts and the arrangements fine.

The workmen at the Green Mountain Pul-mill presented Supt. P. Dillon with a fine fur coat on Saturday. The presentation was made by L. Rivers in a few well-chosen remarks. Mr. Dillon accepted it in a spirit of thankfulness which well repaid the boys. Mr.
Dillon by his fair dealing and uprightness has won many warm friends among them, and the works have been run very successfully under his direction.

PAID DEAR FOR HIS LEGS.

B. D. Blanton of Thackerville, Tex., in two years paid over $300.00 to doctors to cure a Running Sore on his leg. Then they wanted to cut it off, but he cured it with one box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Guaranteed cure for Piles, 25cts. a box. Sold by Dr. W. H. Sheldon druggist.

A SURE SIGN OF CROUP.

Hoarseness in a child that is subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Many mothers who have croupy children always keep this remedy at hand and find that it saves them much trouble and worry. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take.
For sale by Dr. D. A. Blisbee, Druggist.

HOLIDAY GREETING
TRUTH WILL PREVAIL!

Exaggeration is the sin of the age, and the most guilty of sinners are those whose advertisements mislead public. If all they write were true, there would be no second-class merchandise. It is not difficult, however, to tinguish between the true and false, between good and bad, and to know whom to believe and where to buy.

A WORD ABOUT OVERCOATS

There are plenty of features by which any one can judge the worth of overgarments. Our line will bear the close examination as regards either Style, Fit, Finish or Workmanship.

Think not of price highness, but rather of price lowness; the littleness of the price is the clincher in overcoat Twenty-five Youth's Overcoats (carried over) at just half price, sizes 14 to 19 years. Such an opportunity ne-offered at this time of year before. Our line of this season's Overcoats and Ulsters are just right in fabric and sty-for all ages—4 to 90. Our Suits—for all ages—are beyond question the best styles and bargains ever offered here.

Right here let us talk Trousers—for 4-year-old boys to any age, slim or stout. More kinds and qualities than others put together; $1 to $5 for men; 25c to $1.25 for boys. Everybody come and see the table of cloth-we offer at half price.

HATS AND CAPS

Our fall and winter stock was never before selected with so much care. We can fit and suit everyone. Our celebrated "Nelson" Hat cannot be surpassed for beauty, style or service. Caps by the hundred, 25c to $2.75. Tam-Shanters and Toques a specialty. Our stock of underwear will please every way. Just come and examine. B. extra quality, fleece-lined 25c; Men's wool, fleece-lined, worth 75c, for 50c—exceptional bargains. It is known to who know anything about Fur Coats that the "North Star" are the very best made. We sell no other. All no bought in June. No advance paid. Price and quality lowest and best. Money back if you want it.

FUR ROBES, LAP ROBES, HORSE BLANKETS

Corresponding low prices. Wool and sheep lined Duck Coats. Wool lined, $1 up. Overalls, Jumpers Frocks. A line of 50c Overalls 30c, while this lot lasts. Boys' Overalls, 4 years up. A city assortment of Fur Shirts, Dress Shirts, White Shirts, laundered and unlaundered; Flannel, Outing Cloth and Jersey Shirts, wool or cotton Nightshirts, outing flannel and cotton. Wool, merino and cotton Half Hosiery, 25 styles and qualities. We sell the ular Cluett, Peabody & Co.'s Collars and Cuffs. Celluloid and rubber Collars and Cuffs. Silk, linen and cotton Hakerchiefs. Silk and woolen Mufflers—come in and see the new styles. Gents' Jewelry, Cuff Buttons, Collar But-etc. Gloves and Mittens—over 10 different styles. We are headquarters for them, selling direct from the mafacturers. Consequently
